You Probably Have and May Have Spoken About It.

The reader of this newspaper, if he takes the time and trouble to look carefully through the columns, will probably find a dozen statements, tucked out to the foot of reading notices about medicinal preparations. Note this fact, in each and every case as far as Bangor is concerned, as far as the reader's knowledge of the party is concerned, he might just as well live in the moon. Make another note of this. The only remedy on the market which gives instant relief at home, local proof in every town and city in the Union to back up its claims, is Doan's Kidney Pills. They are sold by all druggists, but they cannot do it. Why? Because they are not Doan's Kidney Pills. There will be a special meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the Y. M. C. A. parlors this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Important business will be presented. Only members will be admitted.

The New England supper to be given to-night by the ladies of the Columbia street church will doubtless be largely attended. An excellent programme has been arranged for the entertainment.

"The Devil's Auction" company arrived in the city on the noon train Wednesday from Gardiner, where a performance was given Tuesday night. The company is a large one and has a car load of scenery.

At the meeting at the Hammond street church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev. Mr. Pope will speak specially to the young people, and while all are invited it is hoped that many of the young people may be present.

Until further notice the S. O. & O. train line will run on to the car house so that after the departure of the 7:30 through car for Oldtown the through service of the line will be hourly.

The special meetings at the Hammond street church by Rev. H. F. Pope, of New Haven, Conn., are of much interest. The meetings are held each afternoon at 4 o'clock and evening at 7:30 except Saturday. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. W. H. Bostell, of Providence, R. I., special agent of the Knutson & Marine Insurance Company, was in the city yesterday adjusting the loss on the house of Mrs. John Chisham, on Boyd street, which was recently damaged by fire.

This evening Post Department Commander A. C. Hamlin will read a paper at the regular meeting of Hannibal Hamlin Post, giving an account of his experience under court martial of one of the comrades of the Grand Army. There will be a banquet at 8:30 o'clock.

In the Insolvency Court before Judge Burgess on Wednesday the hearing in the Walter K. Shaw case, a petition for discharge, to have been held yesterday, was adjourned to February 10, as the creditors desired to have further time to decide what action they should take.

It was found yesterday morning that the lock on the door of the office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., on Hudson block, had been nearly torn off some time during the previous night. There was no evidence of burglary, as everything was all right inside. The matter was investigated by the police.

The funeral services of Mrs. C. S. Shepley were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday at the family residence in this city. Rev. James Thompson, of the Advent Christian church, officiated, and music was furnished by Mr. A. C. Morton, the tenor. The pallbearers were Messrs. C. B. Morse, A. H. Flanders, George Stiles and Jasper W. Johnston. The burial was at Mt. Hope. The funeral was directed by Undertaker Hunt.

The ice track above the water works was damaged Wednesday with a race. There was a large number of people in attendance. Only one race was trotted—the three minute class. It was won by Wilbur H. Bowen's horse. An Orono pacer was second, Capt. Reed's horse third and Nathaniel Stanley's horse fourth. The winner received 15 bushels of oats, number two 8 bushels, number three 5 bushels and number four 2 bushels.

Chief of Police Gilman has received a letter from a man named Pottinger in the State of Washington asking him if he thinks from 150 to 200 days of about 60 pounds weight can be obtained in Bangor for the Alaskan service in the Yukon. He proposes to come to Maine and recruit to trainers in the West. Chief Gilman replied to Mr. Pottinger that if he would come to Bangor and advertise in the newspapers he could get all the dogs he wanted.

The alarm from box 15 this morning about 12:30 o'clock was caused by a very slight fire at Eugene McCarthy's saloon on Washington street. A pall, used as a divider, took fire and the floor was slightly burned. There was considerable smoke and Patrolman McNeil burst the door in and extinguished the fire with pails of water. Patrolman Pierce ran in the alarm. The firemen did not have to use any water. Some damage was done by smoke to Perry's clothing store adjoining.

Mrs. N. E. Nelson, president of the Indian club, The Wamsut, of Oldtown, Me., her daughter and another 3-year old girl are being feted by the New York club women. The West End Women's Republican Club has given a delightful reception in honor of Mrs. Nelson and her daughter. Mrs. Nelson is a native of Maine and her daughter is a native of New York. The girls are quite charming and the New York club women cannot do enough to make her stay in their city enjoyable. Her guests are the greatest interest, every detail being carefully noted.

Work on the wooden structure around the standpipe on Thomas Hill is progressing favorably under direction of the contractor, Mr. James M. Davis. The iron structure has been completed to the top. When the wooden roof is put on, giving a glorious opportunity for a survey of the beautiful scenery about the city. Not half the people, perhaps, appreciate the outlook from this famous structure in the city limits. This contractor will make it possible to secure a view which has long been desired by Bangor residents. That it will be grand no one doubts.

WOOD-WARE.

A Happy House Wedding in Bangor On Wednesday.

The Newly Wedded Couple Are to Reside in Fort Fairfield.

A very happy wedding was consummated on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Elton W. Ware, on Grove street, when their daughter, Miss Maude Warren Ware, became the wife of Rev. Earl Boynton Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wood, of this city. The house was filled with guests blithely to the ceremony.

The rooms had been very tastefully and artistically decorated by Saksberg, perfect taste being evident in the design and arrangement.

In the parlor the scheme of decoration was Daybreak pink and green, with a bower constructed by graceful palms and green in the corner where the ceremony took place. The back parlor was decorated with deep red carnations and green. In both rooms were pleasing festoons of asparagus and an arch was formed between the parlors. The dining room was made most attractive with Daybreak pink and green. The whole effect was much admired.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Ware and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wood. At the hour mentioned the strains of the Lohengrin bridal chorus rendered by Pullen's orchestra were the signal for the bride procession through the parlors to the bridal bower, where the officiating clergyman, Rev. John S. Peterson, pastor of the Third Parish church, awaited the bride and groom.

The sister of the bride, Miss Ada May Ware, attended her as maid of honor, and the brother of the groom, Mr. Gorham Henry Wood, acted as best man. Ribbons which formed an aisle through the rooms were held by the flower children, Miss Louise A. Wood and Miss June Bright. The ushers were Mrs. Gorham Henry Wood, Mrs. Mary Chapman and Miss Mary Rowena Wood. The ceremony was happily and impressively performed, an adaptation of the Episcopal service being used. At the close the grand wedding march was played by the orchestra. Effectively, and the warmest congratulations were extended to the bride and groom.

The bride was charming in a gown of white silk poplin, trimmed with Duchesse lace. She wore a tulle veil and orange blossoms. She carried no bouquet. The maid of honor was handsomely gowned in light blue silk and carried a bouquet of white Roman hyacinths.

A delicious wedding supper, was served under the direction of the caterer, Mrs. Mary Smith Lutz. Miss Margaret Davis and Miss Ernestine Thompson presided in the dining room and they were assisted by Miss Lucy Estelle Peck, Miss Nora Fairbanks, Miss Louise Mayner, Miss Gertrude Eaton and Miss Grace Eaton.

The bride and groom left on the 8 o'clock train for a wedding journey and upon their return will reside in Fort Fairfield, where Rev. Mr. Wood has been called to the pastorate of the Congregational church for a year. They will be at home there after March 1st.

Bangor friends part with the bride with regret. She has a warm place in the hearts of a large circle of friends here and they experience a sense of deep regret that she is to leave the city. Fort Fairfield is certainly the groom. Rev. Mr. Wood is an able young man who has a bright prospect in his high calling. His work in the ministry promises to be a good fruit. Socially, also, he is highly regarded.

Shakespearean Recital. This evening at 8 o'clock at City Hall, Mr. George B. Williams, the well known Shakespearean reader, will recite three acts of "Henry IV." under the auspices of the Bangor Shakespearean Club, of this city. Mr. Williams has previously appeared in Bangor with much success and will be greeted by a large audience. The proceeds of the sale of tickets will go for charity work in the High School and school children in general will be admitted for 25 cents. The recital will be both instructive and entertaining and the object is a worthy one.

New Advertisements. All will read the "ad" of the colossal bargain sale at Moody's dry goods store—three stocks in one going at unheard-of prices.

J. H. Snow & Co. offer bargains in canned goods.

Finest of all fish, oysters, clams, etc., at Alfred Jones' Sons.

New wall papers at D. Bugher & Co., 48 cent day at Free's.

Thin china, cups and saucers, only 10 cents at P. H. Voss & Co's.

Madella pens at Chas. Hight's.

Lowest prices on wool, offered by Coombs & Smith Wood Co.

Military School. A military school for the Second Regiment, N. G. S. M., will be held in this city in March. Maj. F. A. Robinson, of this city, will conduct one of the sessions, of which there will be four. Capt. Morton, U. S. A., and J. R. Boyden, U. S. A., will be present to instruct. Capt. Stanley and Lieut. H. C. Smith, of this city, have been assigned to the school. He will present a paper on an important subject.

Warden C. C. Nichols has returned from the Moosehead section after a week on snow shoes and in about Spencer Bay. He obtained a number of lumber camps and found nothing that would lead him to believe that any skill of his big game is going on or has gone since the winter. At Spencer Bay he ran across a young hound running in the woods and taking it to the owner gave him the alternative of shooting the dog or taking a trip to Dover. Mr. Nichols shot the dog. He also went up to Lily Bay and Roach Bay, finding everything as it should be.

Commencing Monday, A. F. Morrison, of the Roach river house, will run a stage daily between that place and Greenville village. It is very likely that he will buy out the line now run from the same place by Orrin Young.

Capt. S. S. Davis, of Kineo, the well known skipper of the steamer Rebecca, had quite an experience the other evening while driving from his brother's camp on Spencer Bay to the Roach River house. It was dark and Mr. Davis was looking along through the woods, thinking of anything but wild animals, when the horses shied suddenly, and looking up to discover the cause he saw two large bobcats standing in the road, intending evidently to charge the way.

The captain has seen bobcats before, but the "varanitas" down below they jumped aside into the woods. Perhaps these animals are responsible for the "bad-devil" stories that have been floating about that section for the past month.

Y. M. C. A. Notes. A debating society will be formed at the Y. M. C. A. building next Monday evening by the members of the association.

A base ball game will be played in the gymnasium next Tuesday evening, but the second game has not been decided.

SEARCH FOR HEIRS.

Or John Kinsey, Late of Bangor—Probate Court Hearing.

On Wednesday there was a hearing in the Probate Court before Judge Burgess on a petition of W. L. Crowley, of Bangor, administrator of the estate of the late John Kinsey, of Bangor, for an order of distribution and determination as to who are Kinsey's heirs. Matthew Laughlin, Esq., and F. A. Floyd, Esq., were the attorneys who appeared in the case.

Kinsey's father and mother lived in Richmond, N. B., and there died, leaving ten children. John Kinsey had lived in Bangor twenty years at the time of his death two and a half years ago. He left no widow nor children. The property which he left was of considerable value and the heirs are brothers and sisters and children of deceased brothers and sisters.

Nothing definite is known of one brother and one sister and the question before the court is what shall be done with their shares of the property which is divided into five parts, with two of them uncertain. The brother, James, was last heard of as a resident of Pittsburg, Pa., and he had four children whose present whereabouts are unknown. The residence of the sister, Mrs. Schenck, and her children, is also unknown.

At the hearing before Judge Burgess on Wednesday it was decided that efforts be made to find the missing heirs should be continued by those interested and that a further hearing be held on the matter in the Probate Court at a later period when there may have been success in the search for the other heirs.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION. Very interesting Session Held at West Hampden.

The winter convention of the Mt. Carmel Sunday School Association held at the Baptist church, West Hampden, Tuesday, was largely attended.

The morning session was called to order at 9:45 by the president, John Sawyer, of Newburgh. First on the programme was a devotional service conducted by Rev. T. P. Humphrey, of Hampden Corner. Rev. T. H. Kenney, pastor of West Hampden church, welcomed the convention in such a way as to give an added meaning to the word welcome. Rev. D. F. French, of Hampden Congregational church, responded, alluding to the fellowship which these gatherings promote and the great need of their coming together for the study of God's word and united Christian work.

Rev. A. J. Lockhart, of the Hampden M. E. church, and J. M. Taylor, of Hampden Corner Sunday school, discussed "The Sunday school library" and showed Sunday school officers and parents the need of carefully watching the literature placed before their children and youth. Following this was an address on "Lord's Day" in the Sunday school" by Rev. A. E. Kingley, of Bangor First Baptist church. Very clearly did he show that there is indeed an evangelistic side to Sunday school work under the instruction of competent officers and teachers. The supreme object of all Christian work is to lead the universe to Christ. The true Sunday school teacher should ever be able to show "man a sinner, Christ a Saviour." Only actual Christian experience and life can do this.

The forenoon session closed with the benediction.

In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Grindell, of Bangor Christian church, led the praise and devotional service. The singing was exceptionally good and heart-felt, and short testimonies from those who could find opportunity for a word were heard from all parts of the house.

The discussion "After the Primary Class What Then?" was opened by Rev. J. H. Kenney, who was followed by Rev. D. F. French, Rev. Mr. Leathers, C. H. Whitcomb, Miss Clifford Morse and Miss Ella Mayo. A discussion on "Preaching Series or Sunday School, If but one, Which?" was opened by R. V. L. Gould and Mr. Charles Lake. It was then opened to the house and an animated and spirited discussion followed. A Bible reading on "The Nature of the Church," by Rev. A. E. Kingley, wonderful in its vividness and power, held the closest attention of the audience for twenty minutes.

Rev. A. J. Lockhart conducted the question box.

The committee appointed to name the time and place of the next meeting reported Simpson's corner, Dixmont, as the place and the time June 14th or 21st, at the option of the committee on programme.

A vote of thanks was extended to the good people of West Hampden for the cordial manner in which they entertained the convention. The session closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

Atmospheric Conditions as Shown by Meteorological Observations.

The following table gives the weather conditions as shown by the thermometer and barometer at Miller's pharmacy:
